Wyoming Allows Long/Short, Anticipates GTAA RFP

Friday, April 23, 2010

The approximately $6 billion Wyoming Retirement System has approved allowing investments in long/short equity funds and anticipates issuing an RFP for global tactical asset allocation managers in the next couple months. CIO Trent May said...

May said the plan approved long/short equity as a strategic asset class at its board meeting last week. He said the move to invest in long/short strategies is very preliminary right now and there is no well-defined objective at this time. He said the move will involve a multi-year build-out with heavy due diligence conducted by general investment consultant NEPC and the plan's investment staff. There will be...

North Carolina Releases Fiduciary Review; Will Consider Investment Changes

Tuesday, April 20, 2010

The $70.5 billion North Carolina Retirement System will consider a slew of investment and operational changes based on the recommendations of Ennis Knupp + Associates, which has completed a fiduciary review of the system, State Treasurer Janet Cowell announced.

"North Carolina's Retirement Systems are fundamentally sound with processes that are consistent with best practices in a number of areas," said Steve Cummings, ceo of Ennis Knupp, in a statement. "We focused our review on transparency and accountability, organizational structure, policy, management structure, performance, and due diligence."
